

Junior School Teacher

Roseville College is an established, respected independent day school for girls in Preparatory to Year 12, centrally located in Roseville on Sydney's North Shore since 1908. Ours is a learning community where girls and staff are truly known, and where every individual is valued. Our vision, to raise future-ready women who lead proficiently with strong character, is underpinned by the Christian faith.

The Roseville College staff comprises visionaries, innovators, pioneers and co-learners, who appreciate this as a meaningful, inspiring and progressive workplace where they are enriched, equipped and empowered for a fulfilling career and to make a positive impact on student generations.

Key information

- Full-time replacement position, Terms 2 to 4 2024
- Junior School Kindergarten and Year 6 placement
- Collaborative and supportive work environment

Broad objective

This is an opportunity for a passionate and experienced Junior School Teacher to join a supportive and collegial department that works closely with College staff to support students in Kindergarten for term 2 (long service leave cover) and Year 6 (maternity leave cover) in terms 3 and 4. The Roseville College Junior School is committed to enriching the lives of young women through engaging learning experiences. We strive to challenge each girl with a depth and breadth of learning opportunities and a wide range of student well-being and co-curricular opportunities to help students be and do their very best at school.

You will have the ability to develop positive relationships, fostering a culture of collaboration and inquiry and be proactive in their support of the Christian mission and values of the College. As an effective classroom practitioner, your knowledge, skills and passion for teaching will inspire students to engage themselves deeply within their learning.
