

Junior School Music Teacher

Roseville College is an established, respected independent day school for girls in Preparatory to Year 12, centrally located in Roseville on Sydney's North Shore since 1908. Ours is a learning community where girls and staff are truly known, and where every individual is valued. Our vision, to raise future-ready women who lead proficiently with strong character, is underpinned by the Christian faith.

The Roseville College staff comprises visionaries, innovators, pioneers and co-learners, who appreciate this as a meaningful, inspiring and progressive workplace where they are enriched, equipped and empowered for a fulfilling career and to make a positive impact on student generations.

Key information

- Part time, 0.4 FTE
- Passion for working with students in early years (Preparatory to Year 2)

Broad objective

The Junior School Music Teacher helps maintain the school as a community of learning and innovation where every girl is known and valued. Students at Roseville College engage in enriching music experiences that challenge and empower them to pursue and attain their personal best in a holistic manner.

Working to support the Coordinator of Junior School CAPA, you will join a highly experienced and vibrant team implementing a collaborative music program with a strong choral foundation. You will play a key role in the successful running of Roseville Colleges' cocurricular programs (P-6) and teach music curriculum in the Junior School.
